

ORACLE
YACHT

CREW PROFILE

BAHRI | CAPTAIN

Captain Bahri, from Bulukumba in South Sulawesi, began his career as Chief Officer in 2015. With years of experience both tugboats and traditional phinisi, he has sailed extensively across Indonesia's waters, far beyond Komodo and Rtaja Ampat to some of the country's most remote and beautiful regions.

Guided by a deep passion for the sea and marine life, Bahri ensures every journey onboard The Oracle is safe, smooth, and memorable. As captain, he is the heart of the yacht, leading the crew and keeping everything seamlessly connected.

GIEL | CRUISE DIRECTOR

Giel, originally from the Netherlands, brings over 25 years of diving experience and more than a decade of liveaboard expertise across Indonesia to The Oracle. With over 10,000 dives logged as a PADI Master Scuba Diver Trainer, he knows the archipelago intimately, from hidden dive sites to remote islands above and below the surface.

Fluent in English, German, and Bahasa Indonesia, Giel leads each journey with calm confidence and genuine care. Under his guidance, every voyage unfolds safely, smoothly, and in harmony with nature, allowing guests to experience Indonesia through the eyes of someone who truly knows it by heart.

HARRY | CHIEF OFFICER

Harry, born in Bulukumba, South Sulawesi, the birthplace of Indonesia's traditional phinisi boats, he has always been connected to the sea. As a boy, he often joined his village's pearl-diving boat, nurturing a love for life on the water from an early age.

After graduating, he dedicated 15 years to his brother's shipyard in Tanah Beru, gaining a lot of experience in traditional boatbuilding. Today, he brings this expertise in sailing and phinisi yachts to The Oracle, where he serves as Chief Officer.

SUSILO | CHIEF ENGINEER

Susilo was born in Surabaya, never far from the sea. His first true voyage came in 2011 onboard a cargo vessel, and since then he has continued to follow the call of the ocean. In 2017, he joined a traditional phinisi and began his career as a Second Engineer. He speaks good English and enjoys working out, reading, and savoring a good cup of coffee.

SUMADI | SECOND ENGINEER

Sumadi was born in Blora, Central Java. After finishing high school, he studied at BP2IP, a maritime academy in Surabaya, where he later graduated. He has since built up experience across different vessels, including traditional phinisi, cargo ships, and tugboats. He enjoys spending his free time with family and friends.

AGUS | CHEF COOK

Born in Gianyar, Bali, Chef Agus brings over 12 years of culinary experience from five-star hotels and another luxury liveaboard before joining The Oracle. He specializes in fusion cuisine, artfully blending Western and Asian flavors. Passionate about fresh, local produce, Agus enjoys fishing and sourcing natural spices from local markets. Ingredients that inspire the creative dishes he prepares for guests on board.

AFAN | ASSISTANT CHEF COOK

Afan was born in Bugis, a village on Bima Island in Indonesia. Passionate about travel and discovering new cultures, he brings curiosity and enthusiasm to everything he does. In his free time, Afan enjoys cooking, reading, practicing his English, and spending time with his family. Friendly and sociable by nature, Afan is a valued member of The Oracle's crew, where he takes pride in delighting guests with his skills in the galley and his warm, welcoming spirit.

ANGEL | STEWARDESS/THERAPIST

Angel was raised in Manado, Sulawesi. She began her career as a spa therapist at a resort, but her love for the ocean and traditional phinisi boats soon drew her into the world of sailing. Since 2014, she has been working aboard liveaboards across Indonesia. With her professional expertise and gentle presence, Angel brings both skill and a valued touch of positive female energy to life onboard The Oracle.

KOMANG | STEWARD

Komang was born in Karangasem, Bali, and has spent the last decade working onboard luxury liveaboards. He is known for his warm smile and attentive service, ensuring every guest feels well cared for. A skilled bartender, Komang can craft any cocktail to perfection, often adding his own creative touch. Fluent in English, he brings both professionalism and a welcoming spirit to life onboard The Oracle.

ERMAN | DECKHAND

Erman, originally from Bandung in West Java, began his maritime career in 2003. Since then, he has sailed extensively across Malaysia, Brunei, Timor-Leste, and throughout Indonesia on a variety of vessels. His deep knowledge of Indonesian waters and his passion for sailing make him a valued part of The Oracle's crew. When not at sea, Erman enjoys hiking, fishing, and spending time at home with his wife and children.

ORACLE
YACHT